TSCEA 2019 Schools Attendance Competition

Register to attend the event and WIN cash prizes for your school!!

Based on the success of last year, the Schools Attendance Competition is back!

Schools who have booked a group of students to attend the event on Monday, 8th April 2019, will go in to the draw for a chance to win fantastic prizes! It's our way to help schools and say "thanks for coming"!

Three great cash prizes are on offer and include -

Terms and conditions of competition entry include -

1. Schools must have booked in to attend the Monday session using the TSCEA booking form (either online or print version).
2. School bookings must be received no later than Monday 25 March 2019. Variation between the number of students booked and students attending on the day to be no more than 10% of original booking.
3. School reps must check in with designated event staff prior to entering the venue.
4. Prizes will be drawn after the event by event Managers, CareersEvent.com. Decision of CareersEvent.com is final. Winners will be announced immediately in print and online.
5. Prize winning schools will approve a brief story to be published online and in print as part of promotion of future TSCEA events.
6. Prize money awarded to be allocated to student development activities at your school.
7. Students booked in to attend the Monday session to consist of students in year levels 10 - 12.
